WEEKLY REPORT FOR THE DCI1984

25X1 -- [REDACTED]

1986

-- We held internal program review meetings to review not only the base and ongoing initiatives requested by each directorate for 1986, but also the proposed enhancements and key issues. On Wednesday, 25 April, the four Deputy Directors met with the members of the Office of the Comptroller to discuss the total 1986 program that was proposed on 6 April, and to reevaluate their individual requests in light of other Agency priorities. We expect substantial reductions in the original requests, based on an appraisal of the likely resource picture in 1986. ^{Next} ~~Next~~ week, the Comptroller will give the individual Deputies an opportunity to present their programs.

When I addressed the NSA senior staff course on 26 April, I made mention of the DCI's quest for excellence exercise and read the group the Credo. A number of senior NSA staffers told me later how impressed they were with it and today, 27 April, NSA asked for a copy of the DCI's speech in the auditorium which set the excellence exercise in motion. We have provided NSA with the sanitized, unclassified version of the speech we had previously prepared and a copy of the Credo.

Nearly all members of the White House Advance Office are involved in the President's China trip. A stay behind, Jim Kuhn, will meet with us on Monday to go over preliminary plans for the groundbreaking ceremony on 24 May. A full-blown walk-through with the Secret Service et al is expected on about 17 May. We have provided President Reagan's speechwriter with ideas for the President's remarks at the groundbreaking ceremony.

The DCI has approved 15 June as the date for the Agency College/University Presidents' Day. We are commencing calls to those whom we wish to invite.

The Mid-Atlantic Placement Association is holding its annual meeting of approximately 150 placement officers at colleges and universities in the Mid-Atlantic region at George Mason University, 4-6 June. The Office of Personnel elected not to pursue this opportunity to brief the group on career and job opportunities in the Agency, apparently in the belief that the program had already been completed. Inquiry by the Academic Coordinator, however, evoked an enthusiastic response from the planners and arrangements are now being made to have an OP representative appear on the panel relating to the recruitment activities of the Federal Government; representatives from GAO and NASA are also scheduled to participate.

The following briefings were conducted:

- NSA senior staff course
- DIA National Senior Intelligence Program at the Defense Intelligence College
- Career trainees re the intelligence process
